ORGANISATIONS, FUNCTIONS AND DUTIES

1.1 ORGANIZATION

The Tungabhadra project was taken up by then States of Madras and Hyderabad during February 1945. With the formation of Andhra State, as per the Andhra State Act 1953, certain areas of the project on the right side of the river belonging to the then Madras State were transferred to the then Mysore State and the project became a venture of the then States of Mysore, Andhra and Hyderabad. This resulted in more than 55 percent of irrigated area on the right bank of the river falling in Andhra and the Reservoir with the head reaches of the canal system lying in the State of Mysore. This situation warranted constitution of an independent body to look after the timely completion of the approved project, its maintenance and oversee distribution of benefits to the States.

Subsequently, as per the Andhra State Act, 1953, President of Indian was authorized to give directions for the completion of the project and its operation and maintenance thereafter. Accordingly, under a Presidential order, Tungabhadra Board was constituted with effect from 1st October, 1953 vide notification No DW II-22 (129) dated 29th September, 1953 of the then Ministry of Irrigation and Power.

The Board consisted of Chairman appointed by Government of India and six Members. The Members were Chief Engineers of both Irrigation and Power Departments of the Government of Andhra, Mysore and Hyderabad. Chairman of the Central Water and Power Commission was appointed the Chairman of the Board in addition to his normal duties. The Board was entrusted with the task of completion of the Project and to deal with all matters relating to works, which were common to both the States of Andhra and Mysore.

The Board was reconstituted with effect from 15 March, 1955 vide Notification No DW VI (4) (9) dated 10-3-1955 of the then Ministry of Irrigation and Power to vest it with more powers. The reconstituted Board consisted of Chairman appointed by the Government of India and four Members representing Governments of India, Andhra, Mysore and Hyderabad. Consequent on reorganization of the States in 1956, the Hyderabad representative was deleted from Board vide then Ministry of Irrigation and Power Notification No.39(25)/56 DW.VI dated 01-11-1956.

The present composition of the Tungabhadra Board is as follows:
